

CONSULTANTS AND ADVISERS

If you find yourself with doors that cannot be opened, ask us for advice. Our responsibility is to provide our distinguished clientele with qualified personnel to lead and manage the finances of large estates or attend directly, or through third parties, to the needs of the most discerning guests of luxury hotel facilities.

We are also professionals in the training of High-Level Service Experts. We study the needs of our clients and provide them with integral ad hoc services built on superb attention and taste for detail in their personal estates and properties.

Our Experts in Stewardship and Interior Management of Luxury Yachts go beyond the concept of butlers or stewards; they are also managers and direct personal assistants of those who employ them.

We guarantee that our proposals are based on professional excellence and in-depth knowledge of each and every responsibility area where our service experts must carry out their work.

With our strict work program and the exact fulfillment of our clients' objectives, we train individuals and create or transform work teams to make them worthy of their employers' trust, professionally brilliant, dedicated to the service entrusted to them, self-disciplined, orderly, proactive, with an impeccable personal presence, and in full disposition of the attitudes and aptitudes necessary for the exquisite performance of their responsibilities.